

ASSIGNMENT OF COPYRIGHT

ATS Website

TITLE: _____

In consideration of the expenses of editing and publishing and the professional benefits relating to publication of my article or other written work, I hereby, assign to the American Thoracic Society all right, title, and interest to my article or other work as set forth above – and any graphics that may be contained in the work including, but not limited to, (1) the copyright and all renewals thereof; (2) the right to grant permission to republish the article in whole or in part with or without fee; (3) the right to reproduce this material for sale or free distribution; and (4) the right to publish in any format and make derivative works of the work.

In addition, I affirm that I, have seen and approved the final version of this work and accept responsibility for its content; that the research (if applicable) is accurate; that all sources of financial support for the work contained in the article have been disclosed; and that this work or any part of it is not subject to copyright or other rights except my own to be assigned to the ATS and has not otherwise been submitted for publication, except under circumstances as communicated to the ATS, in writing, at the time that this work was first submitted.

FOR U.S. AND FOREIGN GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES: If the work was performed outside the scope of your employment, making you – and not the government agency you work for – the actual copyright holder of this work, all authors must sign this form. If, however, the work is a work of the government and, therefore, is not subject to U.S. copyright, the corresponding author should check the box and sign below on behalf of all authors:

☐ This certifies that the contents of this work accurately present the research findings (if applicable) and that this work was performed within the scope of government employment.

If the above work is not accepted by the American Thoracic Society for publication, this transfer has no legal effect, and this form will be returned on request.

No work may be published by the American Thoracic Society Website unless the ATS has received this form properly executed.

Where the work is the product of more than one author, each author must sign this form.
